

OALA Honoring Excellence Awards 2021 – 2022

Each year the Ohio Assisted Living Association recognizes the efforts of outstanding staff members from our member communities. Nominees should be individuals who have demonstrated outstanding vision, innovation, leadership, compassion, creativity, talent or effectiveness in their positions. Due to our postponing our Fall Conference in 2021, we are extending the Honoring Excellence Award window to March 15th 2022. Awards will be presented at the OALA Spring Conference May 9th & 10th 2022.

If someone you know deserves this honor, please fill out the form below and/or go to our website www.ohioassistedliving.org to download additional nomination forms. Self-nominations are welcome. We honor individuals in the following categories: ED/Administrator; Nurse – RN; Nurse – LPN; Caregiver; Sales/Marketing; Food Service; Activities; Housekeeping; Maintenance. We reserve the right to add/modify category titles if a submission comes from outside of the predetermined categories. Nominations will be reviewed, and winners determined by a Committee of the OALA Board of Trustees.

Nominations will be accepted through Tuesday, March 15th to be considered for the 2022 awards. Entries submitted for the postponed OALA Fall Conference will be reviewed for this presentation as well. Winners will be notified in advance of OALA’s Spring Conference, May 2022, and invited to day 1 of the event. There winners will be introduced during opening ceremonies & receive a commemorative plaque. Award winners will be recognized locally with a press release/photo submitted by OALA to a media outlet, on OALA social media sites & Posted on the OALA website.
